

Important Disclosures

For use with policies underwritten by Lloyd's (Binder)

Important Information

In this document, “we”, “our” and “us” means Lloyd's (and 360 Commercial Limited on their behalf to administer this insurance).

“You” and “your” means The person(s) or entity named in the schedule as ‘Insured’ including any new entity or subsidiary companies or subsidiaries thereof or any controlled or managed entity now or hereafter formed or acquired. We may also use the word ‘Insured’ to describe you.

Duty of Disclosure

The insureds duty of disclosure

Before entering into a contract of insurance with the Insurer, each prospective insured has a duty to disclose to the Insurer information that is material to the Insurer's decision whether to accept the insurance and, if so, on what terms. This includes material information about the insured, any other people and all property and risks insured under the policy. Information may be material whether or not a specific question is asked.

There is the same duty to disclose material information to the Insurer before renewal, extension, variation or reinstatement of a contract of insurance with the Insurer. The insured should also provide all material information when they make a claim or if circumstances change during the term of the contract of insurance.

It is important that each prospective insured understands all information provided in support of the application for insurance and that it is correct, as each prospective insured will be bound by the answers and by the information it has provided.

The duty of disclosure continues after the application for insurance has been completed up until the time the contract of insurance is entered into.

Consequences of non-disclosure

If an insured fails to comply with its duty of disclosure, the Insurer may be entitled, without prejudice to its other rights, to reduce its liability under the contract in respect of a claim or refuse to pay the entire claim. The Insurer may also have the right to avoid the contract from its beginning. This means the contract will be treated as if it never existed and no claims will be payable.

Fair Insurance Code

The Insurer is a member of the Insurance Council of New Zealand (ICNZ) and a signatory to ICNZ's Fair Insurance Code (the Code). The Code and information about the Code is available at www.icnz.org.nz and on request.
